BRIEF COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course aims at giving a suitable framework for the methodological approach to the cataloguing of the cultural heritage, by means the discussion of the instruments of the real accessibility to the "common goods": the democracy of the knowledge and the cultural landscapes' informative systems (international, national, regional, thematic); identification and qualification of the heritage, the cataloguing actors and the shared cataloguing, standard and regulations, heritage storytelling, open data.

A part of the course will be dedicated to the discussion of the strategies aimed at enhancing the Cultural Heritage, starting with the principles and the values ratified through the Faro Convention 2005; from the "museification" to the valorisation: sharing, design, communication, enjoyment, accessibility, landscape regeneration and redevelopment, valorisation, involved actors, accountability. A deepening will be focused on the promotion strategies of Museums/Ecomuseums, Museum Systems and Networks.
